

MEP Pavel Telička
would like to invite you to the conference

Seamless Travel: Fiction or Reality? on the future of integrated ticketing in Europe

Evropský dům, Jungmannova 24, Prague, the Czech Republic, on October 1, from 9 AM till 1 PM

followed by a buffet lunch

Seamless travel and multimodal transport systems will make travelling for passengers in Europe much easier, and could also provide a boost to the entire transport sector.

But how close is Europe to ensuring interconnected transport information and payment systems and compatibility of transport modes throughout the continent?

Keynote speech by Dan Ťok, Minister of Transport of the Czech Republic

Please RSVP by September 24 to prague@alde.cz. Visit www.telicka.eu for more info.
